

BIRD'S EYE VIEW

This stunning photo of a light-mantled sooty albatross taken in South Georgia, Antarctica, won Canadian Paul Hicklee of National Geographic first prize for Nature Stories of the World Press Photo contest 2010. Other winners at worldpressphoto.org

DESIRE

five things for your wish list

SAVE...

Connected to a downpipe, this elegant, hand-thrown, raw-glazed jar collects rainwater for hand-watering. Complete with a lid and a spigot for a tap. $260, from Mark Heidenreich at Terra-Viva, 10 Compton St, city.

INVEST...

This heavy, hand-worked sterling silver hinged cuff bears an English hallmark dating it from 1862. $995 from Ottoways, Pirie St, city.

SMOOTH...

As beautiful as they are useful, Love Travel Guides come in silk bags in signature colours. The latest is Love Jaipur, $40 from renovatorstore.com. The full range is at lovetravelguides.com

HANG...

This wall-hanging woven from raffia, seaweed and emu leathers by Amanda Franklin of Kaju Aboriginal Arts and Crafts is $150 from Fabric of Life, 141 Melbourne St, North Adelaide.

1

RITZY...

When it's G&T time, put on the Ritz and use the mixers served at the posh London hotel. Fever-Tree Flavours include ginger beer, lemonade and Indian tonic. $49.95 for 24 from Rio Coffee, 22 Nelson St, Stoney. Ph 8362 3378

Fever-Tree featured in The Advertiser SA Weekend February 2010

